

2018 Outstanding Faculty Advisor Award

Send Nominations to: Charles Jackson at jacks252@msu.edu

Due by midnight on July 1, 2018

Outstanding Faculty Advisor: This award recognizes the accomplishments of a faculty member whose primary role is teaching, but who spends a portion of their time performing duties as an academic advisor.

Application packets should include the following:

Name of Nominee: _____

Department: _____

Year's nominee has been at MSU: _____

Individual making nomination: _____

Nominator's phone #: _____

Nominator's email: _____

Department of nominator: _____

Nomination/Application Letter (maximum 3 single spaced pages)

This letter should demonstrate why the individual meets the qualifications of the award and show through specific examples, the impact they have had on students and the advising community.

Letters of Support (maximum 2 single spaced pages each)

Please provide up to two letters of support from any of the following: colleagues, employees, supervisors, or students.

Resume or Curriculum Vita of the Nominee

This should include the nominee's current position and how it pertains to advising.

Personal Philosophy Statement Support (maximum 2 single spaced pages)

The nominee needs to provide a personal philosophy statement that discusses their approach to advising and/or advising administration.

Application packets should be sent to Charles Jackson at jacks252@msu.edu, and are due by Sunday, July 1, 2018.

Award recipients will be notified in mid-August and will be recognized at the Advisor Recognition and Awards Program.

Also, please note that award recipient packets will be sent forward to the NACADA Region 5 Award categories. Awardees will be guided through this process in the fall.