Non-Violent Advocacy: What it Means to Effectively Change the World Without Losing Your Humanity

In celebration of Constitution Day, James Madison College welcomes alumnus Eric Sirotkin (JMC ‘78) as this year’s special guest speaker. Mr. Sirotkin has over 30 years of experience as a human rights lawyer and is the author the newly released memoir “Witness: A Lawyer’s Journey from Litigation to Liberation”. Eric’s peacemaking activities have taken him around the world, including South Africa where he assisted the creating the Constitution in 1991.

Thursday, September 20
12:00 PM
JMC Library, 3rd Floor Case Hall